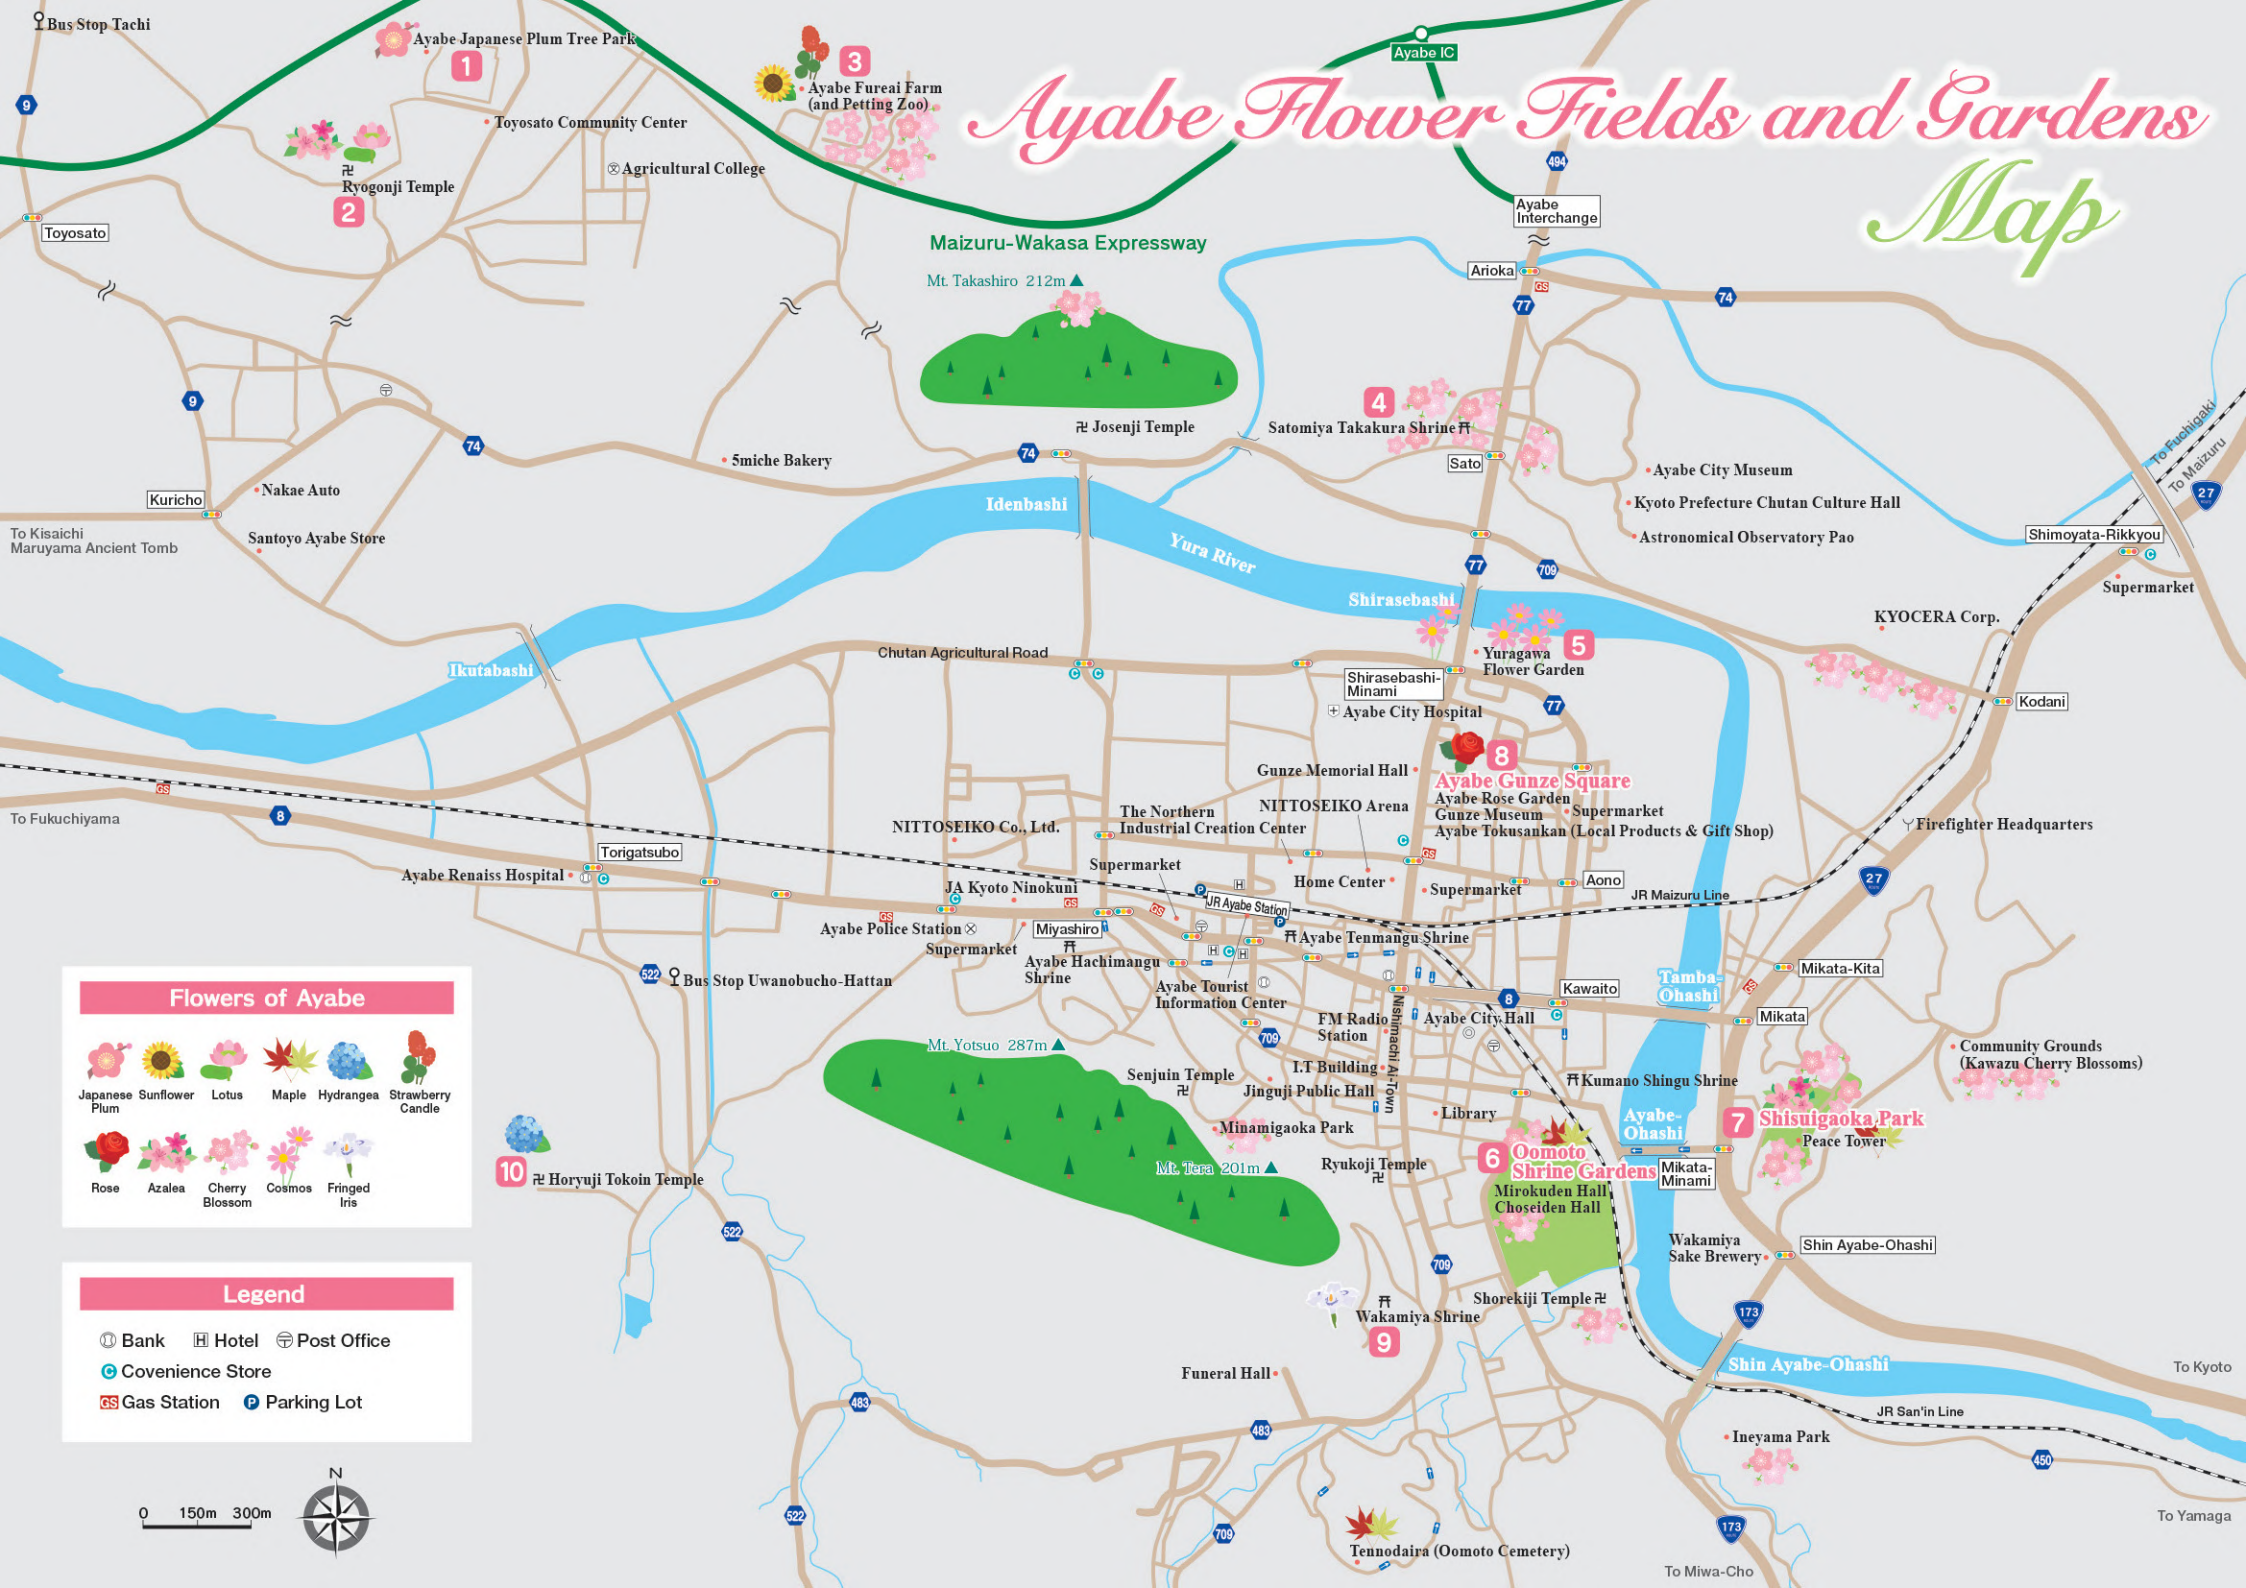
Ayabe Flower Fields and Gardens Map



1 Ayabe Japanese Plum Tree Park

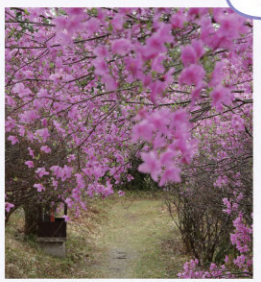
Japanese Plum
Best Viewing : Early - Late March

Open to the public free-of-charge during peak viewing season. With approximately 450 plum trees, you can stroll while enjoying the flowers and their scents.

86 Hatayama, Tachi-Cho, Ayabe City

2 Ryogonji Temple

Known as the second pilgrimage site among the "25 Flower Temples of Kansai."



Three-leaf Azaleas (Mitsuba-Tsutsuji)
Best Viewing : Mid April

Several thousand three-leaf azaleas, endemic to Japan, captivate visitors. During peak season, you can walk through a tunnel made of azalea blossoms.

Lotus
Best Viewing : Mid-July - Early August

When the pink and white flowers are in full bloom, the lotus garden glimmers with color.

6 Ryogonji, Tachi-Cho, Ayabe City

3 Ayabe Fureai Farm (and Petting Zoo)

At the cafeteria called "Heidi's Kitchen," you can enjoy delicious lunch and sweets.

Strawberry Candle
Best Viewing : Late April - Early May

A species of clover, the strawberry candle flowers carpet the area during the Golden Week holidays.

Sunflower
Best Viewing : Late July

Nearly 50,000 sunflowers cover the hills of the farm.

81 Hinokimae, Iden-Cho, Ayabe City

4 Satomiya Takakura Shrine

Cherry Blossoms
Best Viewing : Early April

At Satomiya Takakura Shrine, there is a row of 48 cherry trees, meticulously cultivated by local residents. Visitors are welcome.

105 Mukoyashiki, Sato-Cho, Ayabe City

5 Yura River Flower Garden

Cosmos
Best Viewing : Early - Mid October

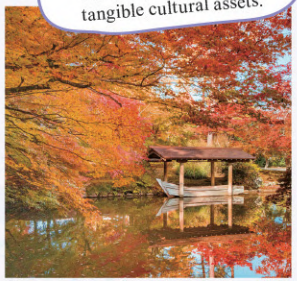
The flower garden, situated on the banks of the Yura River, is a popular place to relax for locals. The cosmos are in full bloom in Autumn.

64-1 Higashikimimae, Aono-Cho, Ayabe City

6 Oomoto Shrine Gardens

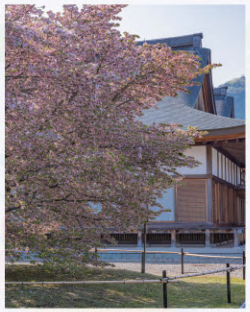
There are several buildings designated as important cultural properties and tangible cultural assets.

Japanese Maple
Best Viewing : Late May - Late July



Autumn Leaves
Best Viewing : Mid November

The lights and shadows manifested by the red maples enthrall many visitors in the fall. Over spring and early summer, the lush maples glisten as if translucent.



Konohanazakura Cherry Blossoms
Best Viewing : Mid April

Discovered in Kameoka in 1953, by the third leader of the Oomoto religion, Naohi Deguchi, was a new species of wild cherry trees. The impressive multi layered cherry blossoms bloom every year in the north garden of the main hall, Choseiden.

1-1, Hongu-Cho, Ayabe City.

7 Shisuigaoka Park

Cherry Blossoms
Best Viewing : Early April

Azaleas
Best Viewing : Late April - Early May

Best viewing of Kawazu cherry blossoms in Community Grounds is mid - late March.

In spring, cherry blossoms and azaleas transform the park into a floral garden. The Peace Tower, which embodies the World Federation City Declaration, stands here, and you can enjoy a scenic view of the cityscape.

Mikata-Cho, Ayabe City

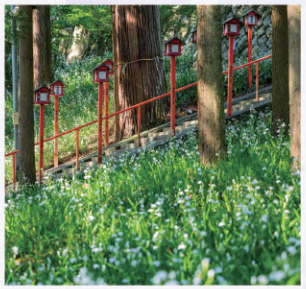
8 Ayabe Rose Garden (Ayabe Gunze Square)

Roses
Best Viewing : Mid May - Late June

In this rose garden, hand-crafted by local volunteers, close to 150 kinds of roses bloom. The peace symbol, "Anne's Rose," is planted in the central flower bed.

1-2 Kamenashi, Aono-Cho, Ayabe City

9 Wakamiya Shrine



Fringed Iris
Best Viewing : Mid April - Early May

Carefully grown, elegant white fringed irises bloom along the stairs approaching the shrine. The contrast between the flowers and the red lanterns highlight this little-known spot.

1-2 Fujiyama, Ueno-Cho, Ayabe City

10 Horyuji Tokoin Temple

Hydrangea
Best Viewing : Early June - Early July

Approximately 2,500 hydrangeas bloom in a variety of colors on the premises. During peak viewing season, the "Ayabe Hydrangea Wind Chime Festival" is held, and the sound of over 1,000 wind chimes resonate.

7 Dono-Oku, Uwanobu-Cho, Ayabe City

Contact Ayabe City Tourism Association

Kyoto by the Sea DMO (Destination Management/Marketing Organization) Ayabe District Office at Ayabe Tourist Information Center

〒623-0066 11-4, Higashi Ishigatsubo, Ekimae-dori, Ayabe, Kyoto TEL.0773-42-9550 FAX.0773-42-8514 https://www.ayabe-kankou.net/

Website Facebook

Published by Ayabe Oomoto Association (Ayabe Tourist Information Center)

Issued March 2023