

A STAY -AND- EXPLORE TRIP NATURE AND CUISINE IN AYABE CITY – Type A

Enjoy the charm of Ayabe City with a comfortable E-Bike. While cycling, you can visit beautiful natural landscapes and historical spots, experiencing the city's attractions from a fresh perspective. This course is a journey where you can fully enjoy Japan's way of life and traditions, all while being surrounded by nature.

DAY 1

Take a local bus (Ayabus) from Ayabe Station. From Ayabe Station South Exit to Nishisaka Shukajo-mae Bus Stop (Nishisaka Line).

Inakaya Sorashido

A Traditional "Okudosan" Experience, Touching on Japan's Old Way of Life

"Okudosan" is a Kyoto dialect word meaning "kamado" (a traditional Japanese cooking stove). It is a cooking facility that burns firewood and was commonly used nationwide until the mid-Showa period (during Japan's rapid economic growth). You can enjoy a cooking experience using an "Okudosan" in a 100-year-old traditional Japanese house. Additionally, you can experience roasting Ayabe tea, enjoying its changing aroma and flavor. The experience is available for groups ranging from 1 to 12 people. (if participating alone, the fee will be for 2 people)

74, Tategai, Nishisaka-cho, Ayabe city, Kyoto, 623-0364

Ichiju Issai no Yado Chabu Dining

Food that Satisfies the Soul and Connects Local People

Based on one of Japan's traditional food cultures, 'Ichiju Issai' (one soup, one side dish), you can experience a simple yet carefully prepared meal. While gathering around the irori (hearth) in a 100-year-old traditional farmhouse, enjoy heartwarming communication with the owner couple, offering a mental detox experience. Feel the pleasant breeze of the rural mountains and immerse yourself in a rich, fulfilling lifestyle. Why not experience it for yourself?

40, Jodoji, Nishisaka-cho, Ayabe city, Kyoto, 623-0364

2

DAY2

DAY 2

Take a local bus from Ichiju Issai no Yado Chabu Dining from Nishisaka Shukajo-mae Bus Stop to Kajiya(Nishi-saka Line).

Ayabe Satoyama Exchange Training Center

1

Rental E-BIKE here.

This is an urban-rural exchange facility located about 15 minutes by car from Ayabe Station. It was renovated in May 2023, utilizing the site of a closed elementary school. The facility offers agricultural experiences and hosts local events.

➡ 9, Kayakura, Kajiya-cho, Ayabe City, Kyoto 623-0235

Ryogonji Temple

The 2nd Temple of the Kansai Flower Temples

Ryogonji Temple is one of the "25 Kansai Temples of Flowers," making it one of the most famous floral temples in the Kansai region. In spring, the Mitsuba Tsutsuji azaleas bloom beautifully, while in summer, lotus flowers grace the temple grounds, captivating visitors. Additionally, the temple is home to a Bodhi tree and crape myrtle (Sarusburi), as well as camellias, all of which have been selected as part of the "100 Famous and Old Trees of Ayabe." Throughout the year, visitors can enjoy stunning seasonal floral landscapes.

➡ 6, Ryogonji, Tachi cho, Ayabe city, Kyoto, 623-0232

Ayabe Fureai Farm

3

A tourist farm marked by a windmill

A relaxing spot where you can unwind while interacting with small animals such as like goats and rabbits. At the restaurant "Heidi's Kitchen" within the farm facility, you can enjoy soft-serve ice cream made with rich Jersey milk, as well as dishes prepared with local ingredients such as fresh vegetables and game meat. Additionally, you can enjoy an authentic BBQ experience with prior reservation. In spring, summer, and autumn, a vast flower field spreads across the hills, captivating many visitors.

➡ 81, Hinokimae, Iden-cho, Ayabe city, Kyoto, 623-0221

Back to the Ayabe Satoyama Exchange Training Center and return E-BIKE, Take a local bus back from Kajiya to Ayabe Station.

Ayabe City Tourist Information

Contact information

TEL : 81-773-42-9550
11-4 Higashi-ishigatsubo, Ekimae-dori,
Ayabe City, Kyoto 623-0066

Ayabe City Tourism Exchange Division

TEL : 81-773-42-4273
8-1 Wakatake-cho, Ayabe City,
Kyoto 623-0014